All Valley Art Institute students will be required to log a minimum of 3 studio hours per week. Students must meet this minimum requirement in order to continue. Students should speak to a representative in order to establish a work schedule specific to their individual goals. A minimum of 6 studio hours is recommended for all students in the college preparatory program. The studio will be open Mondays thru Thursdays from 2 pm to 7 pm and Life Drawing Workshop on Saturdays 3 pm -5. Payments can be made with Cash, Check or Credit Card.

The studio based general curriculum of study will consist of both a technical and expressive understanding of a range of media focusing on drawing, painting, life drawing and sculpture. All student work will be critiqued and evaluated by both instructors and outside observers on a regular basis in order to ensure progress and the goal of completing a competent portfolio for art college admission. Progress reports will be sent out quarterly so that parents are aware of the students' development.
